Student Code of Conduct			We Capture Your Camper's Smiles

Campers enrolling in CPCC's Summer Camps assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the college's function as an educational institution. Misconduct of campers and parents fall into the following categories:

- Dishonesty: knowingly giving false information to or withholding vital information from CPCC Services Corp staff and faculty.
- Behavior: indecent, violent, or harassing behavior that disrupts the classroom environment or requires action on part of staff or faculty.
- Use of property and technology: theft, damage, or destruction of any technology, equipment, or property of the college or its staff and faculty.
- Dress Code: not adhering to the strictly defined dress code of the specific camp

Failure to comply with the above expectations will result in disciplinary actions as follows:

- Warning: parents/guardians will be notified of the behavior infraction in person or in writing and the camper will be addressed about the action.
- Dismissal: if the behavior continues, the parents will be contacted to immediately remove camper from camp and the camper will be terminated from any future CPCC Summer Camp enrollments. Refunds will not be given for camp dismissal.

We often take photographs and videos of our camps in action for our promotions, advertising, and many other uses. We need your signature on file if you would like to give us permission to use your camper's image for our publications.

- The photographs may be used by the College (i) in or as instruction-al materials, (ii) in catalogs, brochures and other information about the College, (iii) in advertising, or (iv) for publication or use for any other purpose deemed proper by the College.
- 2. I waive any right to inspect or approve the finished product or advertisement or the particular use made of the photographs.
- The photographs may be modified or retouched in any way the College considers desirable.
- 4. I release the College and its agents from any liability by virtue of any blurring, distortion, alteration, misnaming or mislabeling, whether intentional or otherwise, that may occur, provided that these things are not maliciously done solely for the purpose of _____ subjecting me to ridicule or scorn.

	I consent to photographs, motion pictures or videotapes
•	(collectively referred to as "photographs") being taken of my camper by persons acting with the permission and on the authority of Central Piedmont community College (the
